

BREAKING: State Police Block GOP Electors From Entering Michigan Capitol to Cast Votes For President Trump – No Reason Given! (VIDEO)

By Cristina Laila

Published December 14, 2020 at 2:27pm

2052 Comments

The Electoral College is meeting today to formalize the 2020 election results.

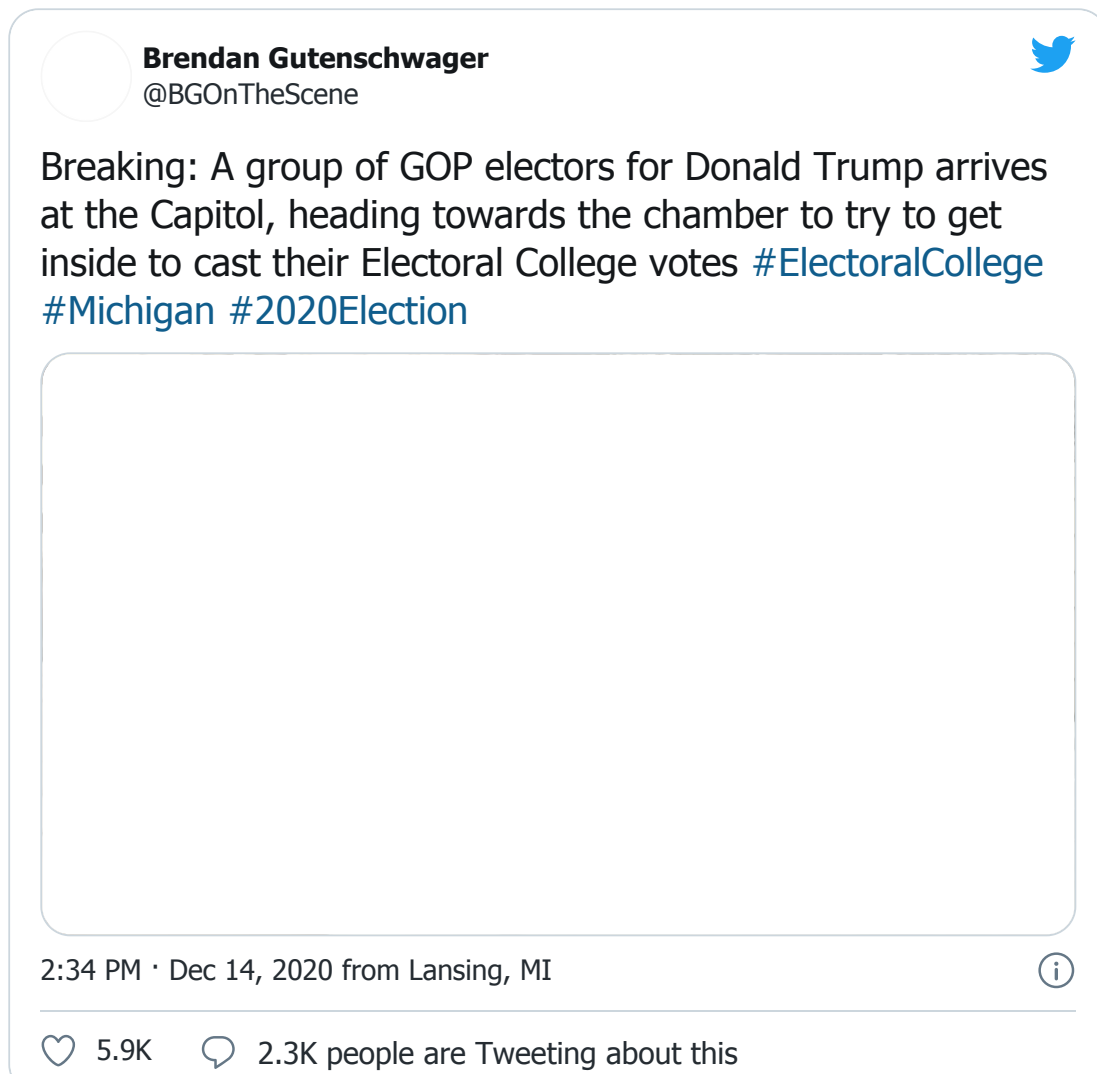

The Trump campaign is contesting election results in several states due to massive voter fraud and irregularities so Republican Electors are stepping up and casting procedural votes to preserve the legal challenges.

So far Georgia, Nevada and Pennsylvania electors cast their votes for Trump and Pence today.

President Trump was way ahead of Joe Biden in Michigan on election night when a massive ballot dump 100% for Joe Biden appeared at 4:30 AM the day after Election Day.

A group of GOP electors on Monday arrived at the Michigan state Capitol to cast their votes for President Trump.

WATCH:

But the Michigan state police blocked the GOP electors from entering the building.

“The Electors are already here, they’ve been checked in.” the police said as they blocked access to the Capitol.

WATCH:

“If you have a problem, you can contact the Governor’s office.” the police said giving no reason for why the building is locking down.

The Trump elector asked for the Sergeant at Arms, but the police officer said he was in a meeting.

The GOP electors were redirected to Governor Gretchen Whitmer’s office!

WATCH:

Brendan Gutenschwager
@BGOnTheScene

“If you have a problem, you can contact the Governor’s office.” State Police block access to the Capitol for the Trump electors, giving no reason for why the building is locked down & redirecting inquiries to Governor Whitmer’s office
#Michigan #ElectoralCollege #Lansing

2:50 PM · Dec 14, 2020 from Lansing, MI

 11.8K  8.3K people are Tweeting about this